the Department of Psychology,
Charles University, Prague

2nd Announcement for the European Symposium

The place of the Person-Centred Approach in Europe:
Contributions, Activities and Impact in a Troubled World
*April, 25th - 27th 2014 in Prague

---

The aim of the symposium is to bring together practitioners and those interested in the Person-Centred Approach to consider how the approach can offer useful inputs in the difficult times that the world, and specifically Europe, is currently facing.

Program

---

Keynote Speakers

Suzanne Keys (Great Britain): Being Part of a Troubled World
Gerhard Stumm (Austria): Person-Centred and Experiential Psychotherapies - A remarkable variety

The symposium will also offer workshops, lectures and panel discussions. One panel discussion offered already is with Wolfgang Keil, Sylvia Rasch-Owald and Peter Schmid.

We are calling for presentations from participants in order to share our experiences, hopes and ideas. We ask you to submit abstracts by February, 28th 2014.

Credits

The symposium accounts for 12 units (in terms of academic hours). Check credits for training or studies with your training institute or university or according to national regulations/accreditations.

Accommodation

Cheap student hostel rooms and reasonable, higher level hotel accommodation are available. Alternatively, there are many hotels of different levels in Prague

Language

The first conference language will be English. We really wish to enable people who do not speak English well enough to attend the symposium. As far as possible, we will organize different solutions to facilitate their participation. Please see the website for details.

The symposium will take place in combination with the 15th General Assembly of the European Network for Person-Centred Psychotherapy and Counselling (PCE Europe). This organization comprises 23 organizations in 13 European countries representing approximately 6,700 psychotherapists/counsellors. The aim of the network is to spread and develop the Person-Centered Approach as founded by Carl Rogers in the field of psychotherapy and counselling more than 70 years.
